B A. XXXVIII 19

112 Cg9

PLEASURES OF THE WATER CURE

BY A PATIENT WHO HAS BEEN WELL DRENCH'D AND WRENCH'D
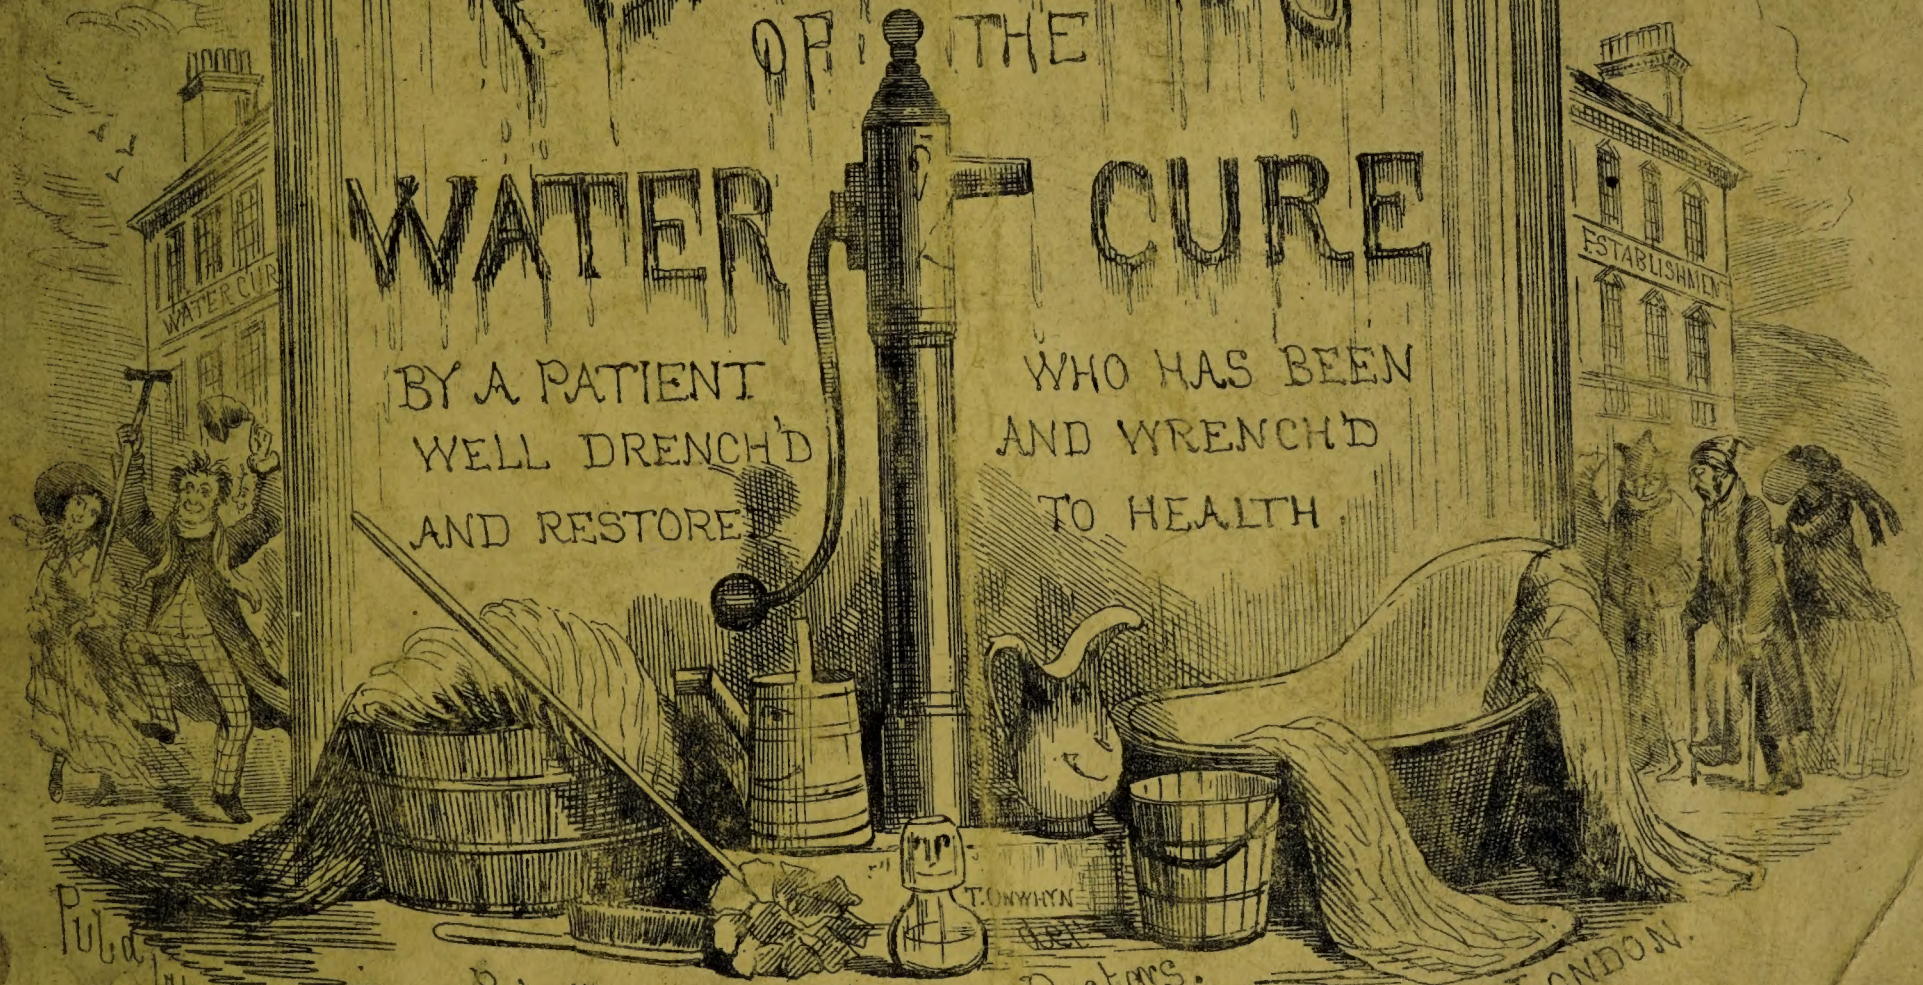
AND RESTORED TO HEALTH



Portraits of celebrated Water Doctors.

Publ.d by Rock & Co. LONDON.
Pub.d by H. Cross, Post Office, Malvern.

23142

A. xxxviii
9/0
ONWHYN (T

E. E. Smith
13/1/09. 39 d

23142

First morning at Water Cure, Bathman brings the Wet sheet.
"But I am sure I shall get my death of cold."

Sitz Bath & Wet sheet 6 o'clock winters morn.g
"This is delightful! very!"

THE ASCENDING DOUCHE.

Now, Sir, please to take a seat here."

THE FOOT BATH.

Doing penance in the Stocks, for past transgressions.

Costume of the Establishment.
'Doing Penance' in the Wet Sheet.

Preparing for the packing.
"Why my nearest and dearest friends wouldn't know me, I'm a perfect mummy."

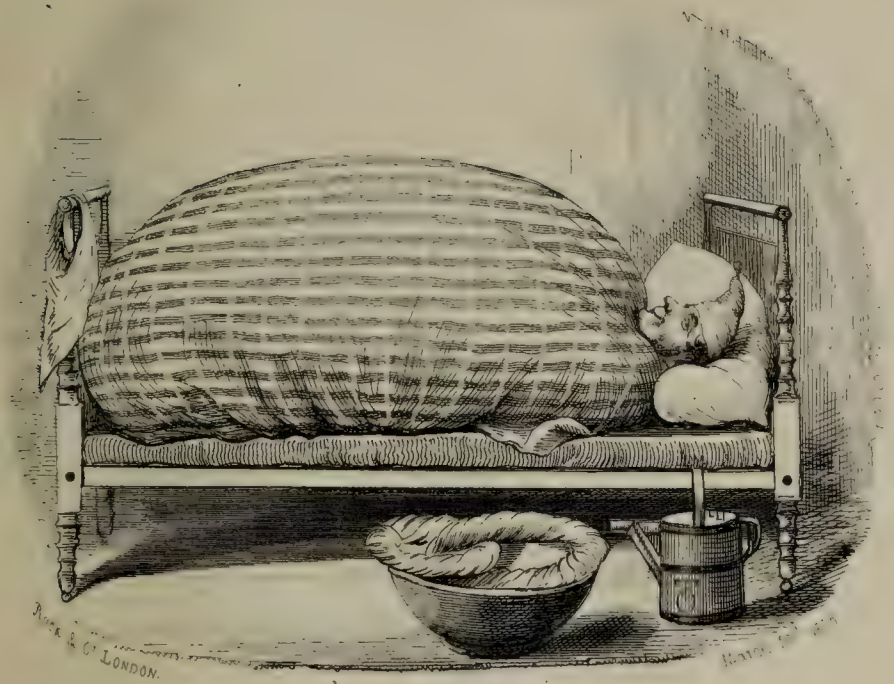
THE RAIN BATH.

"You must be shut in for 15 minutes! Sir."

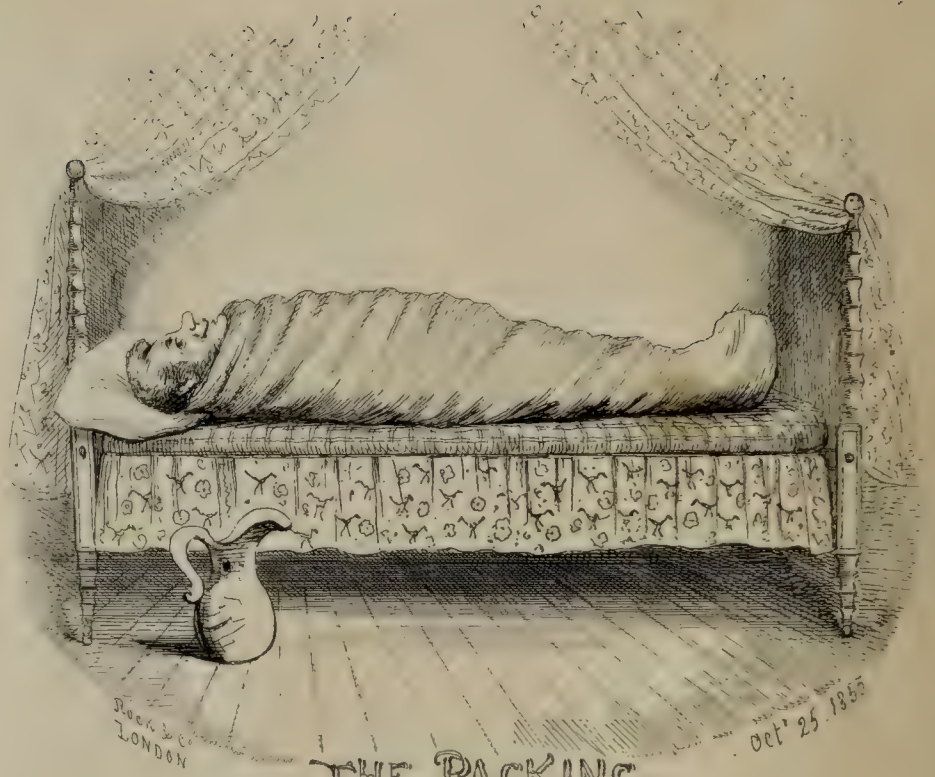
The Douche.

Oh! Oh! Oh! Oh!!!!!!



THE PACKING

"Now this is what I call being jolly."



THE PACKING.

"Don't I look very like a Mummy."

The Shallow Bath.

Ah! this, and the Water Can, is the best Doctor after all,"

A patient at the Water Cure, getting drench'd Wrench'd and restored to health.